Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair Start your own money

BEAT INFLATION!

Cash in on the huge demand for small engine repair.

Work part time, full time right at home - we help you every step of the way.

making business!

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America...an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour...and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

65-million small engines are in service today!

That's right — there are over sixty-five million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Foley-Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Home-owners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers... the list is almost endless.

No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated — so clear you can't go wrong.

You receive trade secrets and business plans.

We guide you every step of the way, including tested and proven instructions on how to get business, what to charge, how to get free advertising, where to get supplies wholesale...all the "tricks of the trade"...all the inside facts you need to assure success right from the start.

Increased Income

"I've had about 8 years experience repairing small engines... but repairs were only minor... until I started the Foley-Belsaw Course."

Walter H. Strick
Campbell, California

With our famous 'learn-by-doing' training method, you get practical 'hands-on' experience with specialized tools and equipment that you'll receive with your training plus a brand-new 4 HP engine — all yours to keep!

Great for Any Age!

IN JUST 7 SHORT MINUTES A DAY with the "miracle" of SYNOMETRICS (scientific concept of ISOMETRIC + ISOTONIC) ...the fantastic new discovery for speed shaping away ugly, embarrassing fat and flab...to reveal a brand new rock-hard, lean, trim, handsome body!

IKE BERGER explains SYNOMETRICS™...the new EASY speed method for figure beauty

What is SYNOMETRICS? You've probably heard about the Isotonic and Isometric principle of body dynamics for years. Each method has its own believers and supporters. I used BOTH methods in my daily training. Finally, I developed a special exercise unit that employed BOTH methods AT THE SAME TIME in one device. The effect was simply amazing. I was able to keep in trim, slim shape in only a fraction of the time I previously needed!

The Science of SYNOMETRICS

I later learned the scientific reason for this amazing result. It's called SYNER-

GISM—meaning that when you combine two methods the result is greater than the both of them separately. I now called my new discovery SYNOMETRICS and developed a special exercise unit I call the SPEED SHAPER. And that's just what it is...a speed method to give you results in minutes, NOT hours! Now...build yourself a "fantastic looking body" with the incredible SYNOMETRICS—the invention that works on the exciting new scientific concept of ISOTONIC + ISOMETRIC.

What is the SPEED SHAPER?

Ingeniously designed, in an amazingly compact slimming & shaping discovery. • No doorknobs needed • Adjust tension to your own needs, for any age • Slip into pocket or purse (5 oz.)—fits anywhere!

DREAMS OF GREATNESS

Finally, a cover story in the August 1984 Pro Wrestling Illustrated about my favorite wrestler of all time, Jerry Lawler ("Can Jerry Lawler Survive His Own Dreams Of Greatness?"). All I can say about this is, it's about time!

Jerry truly lives up to the name, "King of Wrestling." He is the greatest athlete in the sport today, and I'm sure that if given the chance, he would easily be able to defeat Ric Flair for the NWA title, or Rick Martel for the AWA title.

But a lot of the story had to do with Lawler's plans to rule wrestling in the future. This is where PWI is completely wrong. It's too late—Lawler already rules wrestling! He's the greatest!

JOHN MASON
Memphis, TN

I cannot knock Jerry Lawler's wrestling abilities, because they are very good, but he is too uppity for my tastes. Lawler has some nerve calling himself the "King of Wrestling," when he doesn't even hold the NWA or AWA World titles. Until Lawler improves his high and mighty attitude, gentlemen such as Brad Armstrong and Blackjack Mulligan should receive the title shots, not Lawler.

VICTOR CHI
Verona, NJ

I find it fascinating that Pro

Wrestling Illustrated's story on me did not contain a byline. Is that perhaps because the so-called journalist who wrote this story feels insecure in his or her own assertions concerning my career? Indeed, the contention that my own notions of where my career shall bring me in a few years will in fact destroy my career is thoroughly absurd. And I do not anticipate world conquest—I simply want what is due a man of my stature and bearing. And let me point out that I do not dream of success, I make my own success. I don't, as it says in the story, "dream of conquering the world of wrestling." I'm already there.

By the way, Bill Apter's cover photo of me was hardly flattering. I am much better looking in person.

JERRY LAWLER
Memphis, TN

ELLERING'S A DISGRACE

I don't believe my eyes. PWI put a centerfold of that no-good excuse for a manager Precious Paul Ellering in the July 1984 issue. I thought the centerfolds were for big-time wrestlers, not for small-time managers! Precious Paul is a disgrace to the sport. PWI has some nerve to put his ugly face in a centerfold when they could be putting in good wrestlers such as Dusty Rhodes, Brad Armstrong, Billy Jack, or Ronnie Garvin. Don't get me wrong, I'm a proud subscriber to PWI, and I always will be, but I just couldn't believe it when I saw Ellering in such a high-class magazine.

DARRYN CRIST
Orlando, FL

Paul Ellering was unworthy of a PWI centerfold, writes Darryn Crist.

RINGSIDE

With Bill Apter

SOME REMARKABLE things are happening in the world of professional wrestling. Since our last issue went to press, the NWA World title has changed hands twice, and we have a new AWA World champion.

Kerry Von Erich defeated Ric Flair for the NWA World title in Texas Stadium in Irving, Texas, on May 6 (just three days after the printing deadline of our September issue). Flair regained that title in Yokosuka City, Japan, on May 24. Full details on Kerry's title reign can be found on page 32, and we'd like to add that since Flair regained the belt, Kerry has been petitioning the NWA vigorously to receive another rematch for the title.

Over in the AWA, Rick Martel pinned the shoulders of Jumbo Tsuruta to the mat in the St. Paul Civic Center, St. Paul, Minnesota, on May 13. A story on remember another time in the past 10 years or more when there has been so much excitement and so much interest surrounding the world titles. I don't think it's premature to say that 1984 will go down as one of the greatest years of all time in professional wrestling history."

Moments before regaining the NWA World title, Ric Flair weakens Kerry Von Erich with an abdominal stretch.

"This has truly been a remarkable month in the world of professional wrestling," notes Editor-in-Chief Peter King. "I can't Florida heavyweight champion Billy Jack's hand was broken during an arm-wrestling contest with Superstar Billy Graham. The contest had been set up due to the continuing rivalry between

KING'S COURT

—By Peter King—

When Krusher Darsow became a pro wrestler, he was a hero in his home town of Thief River Falls, Minnesota. Now that he has become Krusher Khrushchev and has stated his allegiance to the Soviet Union, the town doesn't even want to know about him.

THERE MUST HAVE been something lost in the translation. How else could a young man from the heart of middle America spew out such venom at the country in which he was born?

Krusher Khrushchev is one of the most hated men in the Mid-South area. I know wrestling fans dislike men like Nikolai Volkoff, Iron Shiek, and Ivan Koloff, but at least these men are, in their own way, patriots. They all support the country in which they were born.

But Khrushchev is an American. Fans may dislike Volkoff, Sheik, and Koloff, but they hate a turncoat like Khrushchev.

Khrushchev's real last name is Darsow, and he is originally from Thief River Falls, a small town in northwest Minnesota. I can't understand how a man who grew up in a middle-American state like Minnesota could turn his back on America.

"America is a lie," Khrushchev told me. "I've always known that. Everything we believe in is based on a lie. We're taught in school that the men who founded this country were great freedom-fighters. Not true. They were rich land-owners who only wanted more money for themselves. Some patriots. Do you know that these so-called lovers of liberty had a clause written into the Constitution that said slavery was all right? The American Revolution was fought so the rich could get richer. In fact, it helped enslave the noble working class. But the Russian Revolution was fought so the workers could get more of their fair share. You ask me why I love Russia? I ask you how could you love America?"

I asked Khrushchev about his boyhood in Thief River Falls. Certainly a little town like that would instill good American values in a young man. He laughed at the suggestion.

"Small-town America, mom and apple pie, right?" he said. "Let me

HOW TO READ ANYONE'S MIND

Truly incredible! Incredibly true! Finally, you can crash the barrier to genuine person-to-person thought communication as you never could before. All alone, with no help, no tricks of any kind, perform the fantastic feat that defies explanation: Actually visualize ideas, images, and words from someone else's mind right in your own head—as if you were reading the pages of a book!

Forget about distance! Your subject can be in the same room with you, chatting with you by telephone, or completely out of sight across the country. You still can do it. Accept the unprecedented proposal offered to you in this announcement—and I'll prove it to you.

I know exactly what you are thinking right now.

You are quite intrigued. And most skeptical. You sincerely believe that is absolutely impossible. That no one can really read anyone else's mind. From miles away? Never!

You have every right to be unconvinced. "Mind-reading" is usually a stunt performed on TV or in a club. We all know that such demonstrations rely on some kind of secret gimmick.

That while it's great entertainment—it's an out and out fake. Certainly not the real thing.

The real thing—for use in real life—is what I am talking about. Like you, I was totally doubtful that it could ever be done "off-stage." Especially by the average person.

AT LAST! THE REVOLUTIONARY TECHNIQUE THAT TURNS FANTASY INTO SHEER REALITY!

Something happened that converted me from a die-hard cynic into a fervent believer. The "Mind-Read" Manuscript crossed my desk.

As a publisher, I read many manuscripts. Yet, this particular one caught my eye at once. I had heard about the author. He is a highly-gifted psychic with a record for pioneering in the field of extra-sensory perception.

His manuscript stunned me. Practically knocked me off my chair. Any lingering doubt I ever had about the "impossibility" of person-to-person mind communication went flying out the window!

I just couldn't believe my eyes. Here it was, in black and white. Written in simple language anyone could understand. An easy-to-learn break-through technique to enable an ordinary man or woman to read someone else's mind. Anytime. Anywhere. At will!

A TECHNIQUE SO POWERFUL IT MIGHT EVEN BE ILLEGAL!

My first inclination was to burn the manuscript. To destroy it entirely. In the wrong hands, it could be dynamite!

Then I had second thoughts. Why should I be a censor? I believe in a free press. So I printed up a limited edition for distribution only to those who will use the technique carefully and wisely within the law.

If you are such a person, I am more than willing to let you try it out without your risking one cent. That's how confident I am of the integrity and power of this most innovative technique.

Everything is explained in easy, step-by-step detail. No special experience or education is required. That's what makes it so workable.

START READING MINDS TO START A WHOLE NEW WONDERFUL LIFE!

Imagine what it would mean to you to have instant access to another person's thoughts whenever you wished.

You would have immediate, lifetime control over your family, friends, neighbors, business associates—even perfect strangers.

Like it or not, they would come under your direct personal domination. You would know what they were thinking at any given time. No one, not even the sharpest human, could hide a thing from you. Others might be fooled by their words. But not you!

You already know why. You would be able to read their inner-most, hidden thoughts. As clearly as if you were looking at the pages of a book set in type one inch high. Without their ever knowing about it! Unless you, yourself, told them!

Dealing with the opposite sex would be a pleasure. Imagine knowing in advance just what to expect from your date or mate. No more guesswork. No more wasted time. No more frustration. For once, you are boss!

And watch the money roll in. You could out-negotiate anyone in any business situation. "See-through" sales double-talk straight to the plain facts. No one gets the better of you. Not when you can read minds!

Whether you're quoting a price or asking for a raise, you'll never short-change yourself. You'll always know the other party's bottom line. And get it!

There's no "gamble" in gambling when you bet on a sure thing. You'll smile when you sit down to play poker or blackjack. When you know the other players' cards, it is hard to lose!

When a loved one is far away, you'll be at ease. Merely follow the technique to find out what he or she is feeling and doing. It's a lot cheaper than a long-distance telephone call!

This is just the beginning. Day-in and day-out for the rest of your life, you will enjoy using the technique in countless ways. To be happier, richer, more fulfilled.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BELIEVE IT. YOU RISK NOTHING TO TRY IT!

If you still insist that "it's impossible", consider this: Have you ever said something to someone only to have him reply: "Funny, I was just thinking the very same thing"?

Coincidence? Maybe. Or perhaps you have unconsciously used the technique without even being aware of doing so. Now you can consciously engage in true thought communication with valuable knowledge like this:

- The first key to mind-reading success.
- 4 ways to reach crystal-clear reception.
- Why an angry person's mind is easy to read.
- How to secretly verify another's thoughts.
- How to read many minds at the same time.

BONUS GIFT FOR ACTING NOW!

FREE! HOW TO SECRETLY HYPNOTIZE ANYONE, ANYTIME!

Reveals how you can get anyone to do anything. Command secretly! Use this strange new method for complete control over others. Miraculous! FREE for promptness. Mail now!

ACCEPT MY "NO-RISK" OFFER AND PREPARE FOR A MIRACLE!

For the moment, suspend your skepticism and mail the coupon. I'll send you The "Mind-Read" Manuscript for only $10—backed by a guarantee which totally eliminates any possible risk on your part.

I guarantee that your check or money order will not be cashed for at least 31 days after your copy is mailed to you.

So you'll have plenty of time to put the technique through the most rigid test, the most challenging examination. To prove to yourself beyond question that you can read anyone else's mind like a book.

If you don't enthusiastically agree that this break-through is truly incredible, just return it. Your check or money order will be mailed back to you at once—uncashed.

What's more, to completely ease your mind, please feel free to post-date your check for 31 days from today. That gives you a fool-proof opportunity to look over the Manuscript and try it out with absolutely nothing to lose.

DRESSING CONFIDENTIAL ROOM

By Stu Saks

I'M WORRIED. I'm beginning to understand Matt Brock. For years Matt has told me that the best vantage point for viewing a wrestling match is from an upper-level seat. I refused to believe him. When I was younger, I always sat up on top. But that was by necessity.

Now that I was able to get press credentials, I wanted to be at ringside.

Matt invited me to go with him to the big card at the Byrne Meadowlands Arena in May. You know, in my five years here, that was the first time Matt had asked me to go to a match with him. I was so honored that I accepted his offer without thinking.

"Great, Matt," I said excitedly, "I'll call and set us up for press passes."

"Uh, uh, Stuie boy," Matt said, shaking his head, "here's your ticket. I bought 'em at the box office."

I didn't have to look at the ticket. I knew it was going to be within the first five rows—counting down, that is, from the roof of the 20,000-seat arena. I had counted on being right in on the action for this card, but I guess I was trapped. Oh, well. At least I would be among the 14,000 fans fortunate enough to see this historic card of wrestling. (Had it not been for about two inches of rainfall that day, the arena certainly would have been sold out.)

This would be a very special evening in New Jersey. Not only would the fans be treated to a card that included the top wrestlers from the Georgia and Mid-Atlantic areas, but, more significantly, they would be treated to a piece of history as well. The Meadowlands show was first card of NWA wrestling held in the New York-metropolitan area since the early 1960s, when Buddy Rogers was the champion of the world. During the next two decades, when Bruno Sammartino ruled the WWF, there were few attempts by other federations

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Every month, our reporters will compile wrestlers' most revealing quotes. Often catching the grapplers with their guards down, our reporters will work endlessly in obtaining interesting quotes on a variety of subjects.

TED DIBIASE

"Brad Armstrong, every wrestling fan in the country is waiting to see if you're gonna turn out to be a chicken like that old man of yours. They're waiting to see if you're man enough to get in the ring with me or The Spoiler. Well, I don't think you are. I don't think you'll ever be, either, so why don't you just give me the belt now, and save yourself some pain."

TERRY GORDY

"Goin' on the road, brother. Goin' to the Mid-Atlantic. Michael Hayes is working on some new pick-up lines for you ladies. Yeah, we're gonna wrestle, too. They're bringing in The Road Warriors, and I think we're supposed to be scared or something. Trust me, we're not scared. We're ready. We're always ready."

STEVE KEIRN

"Stan Lane and I were wrestling Larry Zbyszko and Steve Regal the other night. I know that the fans don't really like Regal and Zbyszko, but throwing things in the ring isn't the thing to do. Someone could get hurt, like the ref, the fans at ringside, or even us. I hope that none of our fans do that. It's a dangerous thing to do."

KEN TIMBS

"Eric Embry and I are The Fabulous Blonds, the most incredible tag team Southwest Championship Wrestling has ever seen. Even if we weren't the greatest wrestlers, we'd still be stars. When you look like we do, you're gonna get noticed, there's just no way around it. We could be rock stars, movie stars—whatever we want. We were destined for stardom."

CRUSHER

"I feel like a 20-year-old again. The AWA tag team title has given me new life. I don't know about Von Raschke, but I feel young. I'm ready to do it all over again. I'm ready for the best cigars, the best restaurants, the best women, and the top titles in wrestling. I had it when I was 20, and now I'm gonna have it all over again."

ROAD WARRIOR HAWK

"Billy Jack—what kind of a pansy name is that, huh? This guy thinks he's hot. Well, just look at me, pansy. I want to see you stand between me and Animal and tell us you've got a better body. Sure, you look slick, but when it comes down to size, definition, and power, there's no one like The Road Warriors. We're the biggest and the best."

HULK HOGAN

"I have never, in all of my life, seen anything that has the power of Hulkmania. When I go to the arenas, when I see people on the street, people recognize the Hulkster and they go wild. It's great, it's—it's . . . it's so exciting I'm having trouble talking about it. Hulkmania, it's the ultimate force, and I'm the ultimate male."

MARK YOUNGBLOOD

"Kernodle and Koloff might have gotten the best of us at the Meadowlands, but that doesn't mean that Pistol Pez Whatley and I won't be back. We're gonna keep trying until we find a way to beat them. We're already a better team. We just have to figure out how to combat their illegal tactics. And we will."

JIMMY HART

"Jim Neidhardt, you're a thief. I spend years collecting a stable of wrestlers, training them and teaching them, and then you just snatch them out from under me. Well listen to me, Neidhardt, I'm working on an extra special surprise for you, a surprise that you're not gonna be too happy with. Get ready, 'cause this is gonna be a big one."

A—ON— ASSIGNMENT

BY LIZ HUNTER

Rick Morton rakes his fingernails across Grappler I's back as Robert Gibson looks on from the ring apron. Columnist Liz Hunter is among the many females who would like to go out on a date with a member of The Rock 'n' Roll Express.

PRO ATHLETES ARE always going to be the objects of teenage girls' affections. When I was 14, I remember going crazy over Joe Namath, the New York Jets quarterback. In fact, I once even passed up a wrestling card at Madison Square Garden to watch the Jets on Monday Night Football.

Back in 1970, there were the three Pauls: Paul Diamond, Paul DeMarco, and Paul Christy. They were wrestling's heartthrobs; at least they were mine. Today, there are so many young, good-looking men in wrestling that for the "Wrestling's Sexiest Superstars" poll featured in our sister publication Wrestling Superstars we had to leave out about three times as many wrestlers as we included.

The men on this year's ballot include stars like AWA World champion Rick Martel, the winner of the last poll two years ago, NWA World champion Ric Flair, WWF champ Hulk Hogan, North American champion Terry "Magnum T.A." Allen, U.S. champion Rick Steamboat, and Florida state champion Billy Jack. I'm not going to tell you who I would vote for, but I will tell you that he wears a title belt.

Two of the many wrestlers that got excluded from our list, for no other reason than to keep the ballot down to a reasonable size, were Rick Morton and Robert Gibson, the Mid-South tag team champions. "The Rock 'n' Roll Express" were not neglected by the Mid-South promoters, however, who are running a "Superdate at the Superdome" contest. By the time you read this column, two lucky female fans will have won a special evening with Morton and Gibson that includes transportation to New Orleans from their home, dinner with the two stars, limousine service, and front row seats for the Superdome wrestling extravaganza, a card topped, appropriately, by The Rock 'n' Roll Express.

OFF THE O ROPE

By Dan Shocket

[Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in this column are those of the letter writers and Dan Shocket himself. They do not necessarily represent the editorial views of this magazine.]

MORE THAN A few letters have severely castigated me for slighting the WWF title reign of Bob Backlund, an era I don't believe can be slighted enough. My correspondents point out that I gave over a whole column to fans' analyses of Ric Flair's first title reign. These benighted scribblers contend Backlund deserves the same treatment. Though I contend the only treatment Backlund deserves is the place where they handle sewage, I admit the correspondents do have an argument. So to be fair, I invite any and all readers to write letters summing up the six years of degradation known as Bob Backlund's WWF title reign.

And now on to more pleasant topics.

Dear Mr. Shocket,

I am a Ted DiBiase fan and have been for years, but I feel a wrestler like Ted should be able to handle wrestlers like Tommy Rich,

With all that is working against Ted DiBiase, how can anyone blame him for loading up his glove from time to time? Referees will look out for a guy like Johnny Rich (above), but who's going to watch out for Ted DiBiase?

Johnny Rich, and Brad Armstrong without loading his glove or cheating any other way.

Why can't all wrestlers just wrestle and be fair about the way they wrestle? I can remember when Ted wrestled scientifically. He was a far better wrestler then.

PAULINE MAXWELL
Alliance, OH

Dear Ms. Maxwell,

I envy you the life that must be so free from harsh realities that you could ask that question. With the commissioners, officials, referees and cadres of wrestlers against him, do you really expect DiBiase to be wholesome and pure? I'm not saying Ted used a loaded glove, but if

PRESS CONFERENCE

BRAD
ARMSTRONG

The feud between Brad Armstrong and Ted DiBiase has been well documented in this magazine. It's an ugly war whose roots stretch far deeper than the common cause for wrestling feuds: athletic pride and jealousy. DiBiase, a man whom the fans used to honor with their cheers, has taken responsibility for inflicting drastic facial injuries on Brad's father, Bob Armstrong.

Brad promised that he would repay DiBiase for the ruthless attack, and got his revenge when he took the National heavyweight belt from DiBiase while disguised as the masked Mr. R. Armstrong wasn't proud of the methods of his revenge, saying afterward, "The rules are important, very important. But there's one thing that's more important: love. I'd kill for [my father]."

Although Armstrong lost the belt to the Paul Ellering-managed Spoiler, he soon reclaimed the belt in front of a hometown crowd at Marietta, Georgia's Cobb County Civic Center. After the match, while Brad celebrated with his father, DiBiase ran into the ring and, with The Spoiler and Ellering, attacked both men. Spoiler clamped his clawhold on Bob's healing facial injuries, inflicting even more damage.

Managing Editor Stu Saks, Associate Editor Craig Peters, and Assistant Editor Rich Countis spoke to Brad after a recent title defense in Cleveland.

"I'll wrestle either Spoiler or DiBiase anywhere, in any city, in any arena. You can't do what they did to an Armstrong and get away with it."

Armstrong sneers at Ted DiBiase, who is watching his match with The Spoiler from ringside.

STU SAKS: The last time we spoke, Brad, you had just beaten DiBiase for the National title. You've lost the title and regained it since then. Is being the champ any easier the second time around?

BRAD ARMSTRONG: Well, Stu, to tell you the truth, it's tougher now, a lot tougher. It seems like everyone wants a piece of me. On top of that, I have DiBiase and The Spoiler chasing me all over the place: in Georgia, on tour here in Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, New Jersey, and Maryland. There's no let up.

CRAIG PETERS: Do you think the feud with DiBiase will adversely affect your title reign?

BA: You know, I'm very proud to be the National champion, and I do revere this championship belt, but I can't just turn my back on what that scumbucket Ted DiBiase did to my father. I can't let him off the hook for breaking my father's face. Jeez, he broke his face! If I let him get away with that, I wouldn't be able to live with myself. Getting DiBiase back for what he did is more important than the National title. It's a case of family vs. career. Family will always come first. Anyway, DiBiase wants the title, and I want him, so it all works out.

RICH COUNTIS: What's the status of your father's recovery?

BA: Right now, he's still seeing a plastic surgeon. Like I told Stu during our last interview, he's had both cheekbones replaced.

SS: They removed one of his ribs to replace the cheekbones, right?

BA: That's right. He has one more operation to go through, and then all he has to do is heal properly, with no interruptions. This time, he's not going near a wrestling ring. I couldn't believe what happened in Marietta.

CP: Didn't you consider the possibility that The Spoiler and DiBiase might be planning to attack your father?

BA: That was shameful! I'm almost embarrassed to say that I'm in the same line of work as those two, and Paul Ellering. I never thought about it. I was too happy about winning the title back to think about something so terrible.

Armstrong's National title victory over The Spoiler was an extremely costly one. As Brad and his father, Bob, celebrated in the ring, Spoiler and DiBiase violently attacked the pair. Bob, who was recovering from a previous DiBiase assault, was again badly injured.

SS: You've got The Spoiler and DiBiase after you ...

BA: I think it's more like we're after each other. I've said it on TV, and I'll say it every time I'm asked: I'll wrestle either Spoiler or DiBiase anywhere, in any city, in any arena. Or, if they like it better this way, I'll fight them in any alley or in any parking lot they want. All I want is a piece of them. You can't do what they did to an Armstrong and get away with it.

RC: I think Stu was about to ask about the other worthy challengers for your title. There are a lot of good men in the Georgia area waiting for a title shot. How about Jake Roberts, or Tommy Rogers, or Tim Horner, or Billy Jack?

BA: First, let me apologize to you

Stu for cutting you off like that. I'm just getting real hyped up about this whole situation. I've been flying off the handle at everyone. As far as the other challengers go, I know they're there. I've wrestled Roberts a few times now, and I know that he's tough. You can see how much trouble Ronnie Garvin's having with him. Rogers and Horner are great wrestlers. They're like me. They're young, fast, talented. I would welcome a match against either of them. It would be a relief to wrestle in a purely scientific match. As far as Billy Jack goes, I've only seen him wrestle a few times, and I've read about him in your magazines. He's a powerful guy. I have a lot of respect for him. You can tell just by his body that he has a lot of discipline. You don't build a body like that without it. There's also some talk that Barry Windham's planning to sign for some matches in the Georgia area. Barry and I became good friends when I was wrestling in Florida a while back, and I know that he would be a great challenger. Hopefully, these matches will be signed. I'd like to see it, and I know the fans would enjoy them.

CP: Does it help to have the fans behind you when you're in the ring against DiBiase or The Spoiler?

BA: Oh, definitely. It's good to know that you've got some support. The ring can be a real lonely place, you know? When you got the people behind you, though, it's almost like you're not there alone.

SS: Do you see any end in sight with this feud between you, The Spoiler, and DiBiase?

BA: Yeah, I see an end. The end will be when I've gotten them back for everything they've done to the Armstrongs. Everything. Not only the physical injuries, but for all the mental anguish we've gone through, all the worrying, and all the days my dad spent in the hospital. I'll do it alone, or I'll do it with help, but I'll get the job done. I'll sacrifice my health and my title. Family is number one. Right now, nothing else matters. □

THE PWI T-SHIRT CONTEST

Maybe I'm going to have to start coming up with trivia questions instead of printing photos of presumably unidentifiable wrestlers. It seems that everyone is coming up with the correct answers these days.

Actually, I thought I'd try to throw you a curve last issue by asking readers to identify where a particular match (Don Kernodle vs. boxer Lee Canalito) was shown, instead of having to identify a specific wrestler.

Well, almost everyone came up with the right answer: The match was shown in the Sylvester Stallone film Paradise Alley. Ed Burgoyne of Albany, New York, was lucky enough to have his correct entry chosen from a box that was, I'm sad to say, jam-packed with mail. Hopefully, this month's contest will be a little tougher.

All you've got to do is identify the wrestler in the accompanying photo. No hints.

Mail your answer, along with your T-shirt size (small, medium, large, or extra large), to: In Focus/PWI, Box 48, Rockville Centre, New York 11571.

THEY LOOK LIKE THEY'D MAKE A GREAT TAG TEAM!

Houston promoter Paul Boesch was recently the guest of Vice President George Bush at a private party marking the occasion of the Houston Astros' 1984 opening game at the Astrodome. (The vice president threw out the first ball at the game.)

"I was on a tour of New Zealand when I got a phone call telling me about the invitation," Boesch said. "You sure better believe that there was no hesitation when I cut my trip short and rushed back to Houston!"

"The vice president is a true sports fan," Boesch said, "and best of all, from my own point of view, he's a wrestling fan as well!"

Coincidentally, Mr. Bush was little league coach for the team on which Wahoo McDaniel played when they lived in Odessa, Texas. He was a fan of Wahoo's when he played professional football, and has followed his athletic career into professional wrestling. He is also a good friend of Ernie Ladd's, and follows Ladd's career closely to this day.

Boesch & Bush

HEEEEEEEERE'S JERRY!

Wrestling fans in Memphis, Tennessee, have been tuning in to WMC-TV Channel 5 at 11 a.m. on Sundays for a unique program called The Jerry Lawler Show. This program provides an overview of the entire sports world with, of course, an emphasis on professional wrestling.

"It's important that we cover all sports, from wrestling to basketball to football to baseball to professional karate," Lawler explains. "Our audience becomes that much larger, the interest in all sports increases, and maybe even we'll win over a few more fans to wrestling!"

As far as the wrestling portion of the program is concerned, the best explanation might be that The Jerry Lawler Show is a video wrestling magazine.

"We have interviews with the top stars in the Mid-Southern area," Lawler says, "personality profiles, and spotlight matches. We even have a segment on occasion that brings together two antagonists via satellite hook-up—that's one portion of the show that's created a few fireworks over the weeks!"

Jerry Lawler

Lawler reports that response to The Jerry Lawler has been excellent and that station executives are very pleased.

IS THE LEGION OF DOOM EXPANDING?

Last month, this column asked the rhetorical question, "Is the Legion of Doom crumbling?" Well, it appears that what I had anticipated has not come to pass . . . yet. I wrote about some friction between Jake "The Snake" Roberts and The Road Warriors. That friction has not affected The Legion in any major way over the last month, but I think it may in the near future. Let's keep an eye on that situation.

Meanwhile, it appears as if The Legion of Doom may be expanding to include some of the more vicious rulebreakers in the Kansas City area such as Crazy Luke Graham and The Masked Grapplers.

"I am not about to reveal to you any plans for the future of The Legion of Doom," Ellering said when I contacted him. "But

The Road Warriors with Luke Graham & The Grapplers

I will say that I am always looking for ways in which to expand and strengthen the Legion, and I am open to any and all intelligent suggestions on how to do that."

When contacted by Pro Wrestling Illustrated, Crazy Luke Graham denied any connection with Ellering, or knowledge of any negotiations with The Legion of Doom. I tried to call the The Masked Grapplers, but couldn't locate them. Does anyone know the area code for "Parts Unknown?"

The New AWA Champion Rates His Challengers

RICK MARTEL:

"I'VE NEVER HAD IT SO TOUGH!"

Rick Martel celebrates his title victory over Jumbo Tsuruta in Minneapolis with Greg Gagne and several of his other close friends (out of picture).

Rick Martel has consistently been a top contender for the AWA World title since his arrival in that area nearly two years ago. He recently realized his championship dream by defeating Jumbo Tsuruta for the AWA belt. Now Martel is a target for some of the top names in the sport, and the young Canadian is beginning to truly understand the rigors of being champion

IN THE FIRST week of June, I had the pleasure of traveling to Montreal to visit with Rick Martel. We spent a lot of time in the photo studio, and Rick was proud and honored to pose with the AWA World belt around his waist.

During those studio sessions, Rick and I got to talking about the differences between being a contender for a title and being the holder of that title. It's a topic I've discussed countless times before with countless other champions, and I'm always fascinated to discover that each wrestler has his own unique thoughts on the subject.

In Martel's case, the difference of being challenger and champion was one of the degree of intensity with which he must wrestle. He realizes that he has to wrestle much harder now than ever before. He has to wrestle harder to maintain his hold on the World title, and he has to wrestle harder to bring the kind of character to his title reign that he would like the belt, and his name, to be associated with. You can bet that Rick Martel won't be disqualifying himself to keep his title!

From speaking about the championship in general terms, Martel shifted to speaking about various top contenders in very specific terms. I placed our discussions on tape, and what follows are selected comments transcribed from larger discussions about the five top contenders to his AWA title: Nick Bockwinkel, Blackjack Lanza, Jumbo Tsuruta, Bruiser Brody, and Jerry Lawler. Not only are these men the top five athletes in the AWA, but they are among the very best athletes in all of professional wrestling.

"The wrestling talent in the AWA right now is the cream of the crop as far as the entire sport is concerned," Martel said. "The level of expertise in the AWA has never been greater, and that's something I have to contend with as champion. I've held regional singles titles before, and I've had the WWF tag team title twice, but those championships are nothing compared to this. As far as I'm concerned, I've never had it so tough."

I'm sure you'll find the following quotes enlightening reading, for they reveal a segment of Martel's personality that could not possibly have been revealed until his ascension to the AWA throne. Indeed, they provide a rare glimpse into two personalities: Martel the champion, and Martel the man.

—Bill Apter

Nick Bockwinkel: "For all the criticism that was aimed at Bockwinkel during his title reign, it can't be forgotten that he is one of the most intelligent men in the sport. Right now he's the number one contender, and I've already wrestled him a couple of times. He's dangerous. Very dangerous. When he was champion, he could simply disqualify himself to keep the title. But now that he's no longer champion, his entire wrestling style has changed, just as my own style is in the process of changing. And the most dangerous thing about Bockwinkel is that it's impossible to tell what his style is changing into. When I wrestle Bockwinkel, I'm very, very careful about trying to anticipate what's coming next. One false move on my part will cost me the title—Bockwinkel's not the type of wrestler who gives you a second chance."

Rick Martel's first match as AWA World champion was against Nick Bockwinkel. Martel twists Bockwinkel's left arm, lowering the former AWA champion to his knees in agony (above). After this test of strength (below), Bockwinkel's shoulders would be on the canvas.

Blackjack Lanza: "Lanza is a big man, and he's got experience to spare. What would make him a difficult opponent is the fact that he's willing to take five or six blows in order to get in one of his own. He's an incredibly tough man; when he does get in that one blow, it has the same effect as those five or six from someone else! Lanza is also extremely dangerous with his clawhold, but I like to think that if we ever stepped into the ring together, my speed and agility would enable me to outmaneuver him and escape the claw."

Jumbo Tsuruta: "Well, this is the man, isn't it? The former champion, the man I defeated for the title. What can I say? I've got nothing but respect for Tsuruta's wrestling abilities. His scientific knowledge is excellent, and he can maneuver you halfway into a hold before you're even able to figure out what he's doing and devise a counter for it. His knowledge of the Lou Thesz-style backdrop makes him all the more dangerous. He's the kind of opponent who keeps you at top speed both mentally and physically, and if you can't keep up an incredible level of endurance in both of those areas, he's going to pin you. He may be considered the number three contender to my title, but I would have to rate him my number one threat."

Bruiser Brody: "A wildman. Brody has got unbelievable speed, agility, and raw energy. He's got scientific knowledge and he can brawl like mad. He knows how to use the ropes, and his aerial skills are superb. His stamina is excellent as well. In many respects, Brody is the all-round perfect wrestler, but I think he has a tendency to allow himself to get out of control. On the other hand, I pride myself on maintaining a high level of self-control throughout my matches. I think that any match between Brody and myself would revolve around this issue. I would hope that as long as I could incite Brody to allow himself to lose control, my own level of control would be able to capitalize on his inevitable mistakes and capture the match. I would hope. Because if I had to slug it out with Brody in a brawl, I doubt if I would be able to survive for very long."

As champion, Bockwinkel would find himself in trouble and intentionally get himself disqualified to keep his belt. Now, when Martel tells him to wrestle (top left), he has no choice. Nick tries to stretch the champion's shoulder out of its socket (above).

Jerry Lawler: "I watched several of Lawler's matches against Bockwinkel when Nick had the title, and I must say that Lawler was excellent. You know, if Bockwinkel didn't have such a penchant for disqualifying himself, Lawler would have taken the title from him long ago. Then Tsuruta would have had to wrestle Lawler for the belt, and I'm not sure if he would have been able to defeat him. In many respects, Lawler's style parallels my own, and I believe that a match with him would remain primarily scientific. As far as Lawler is concerned, it would have to be a scientific match—that's his forte. Where Brody could destroy a man with his brawling, I think Lawler would get himself destroyed if he tried to wrestle exclusively on that level. And in a purely scientific match, I think I've got the edge on Lawler both in speed and in endurance. I'd like to test that theory; I think a match with Lawler would be a classic." □

A Remarkable
NWA Title Reign:

KERRY
VON
THREE
OF THE WORLD!

Kerry Von Erich's dream came true when he pinned Ric Flair's shoulders to the mat and captured the NWA World title. In that moment of ecstasy, however, he couldn't have imagined the whirlwind of activity that would immediately follow—nor could he have imagined that the belt would be back around Flair's waist less than three weeks later!

THE SOUND OF 43,517 fans screaming in ecstasy was deafening. And the emotions that gripped Kerry Von Erich in the center of the ring in Texas Stadium were overwhelming.

Kerry had just defeated Ric Flair for the NWA World title. Most important to Kerry, the match took place on a card of wrestling that was dedicated to the memory of his brother David.

"I hope that I can live up to the responsibilities of the NWA championship," Kerry said in an interview the following day. "This title means a lot to me because it doesn't belong just to me. It belongs to my family, my friends, the 43,000 people who were in Texas Stadium yesterday afternoon, and most of all, it belongs to my brother David. And that's where the meaning for this title reign comes from. I'm devoting my title reign to David. It's his championship as much as it is mine."

The responsibilities of the NWA title would make their demands on Kerry even before he had the chance to rest from the Texas Stadium card, catch his breath, and get used to the idea of being the World champion.

"There's no rest for the World champion," Ric Flair was once quoted as saying. "Either you set your controls at 100 percent and forge ahead full force at all times, or you're going to lose the title. It's that simple."

And that difficult.

The Texas Matches

Kerry's first match as NWA champion was a title defense against Freebird Terry Gordy in Fort Worth, Texas.

"In most of the matches involving The Freebirds," notes Senior Editor Bill Apter, who was at ring-side photographing the Von Erich-Gordy match, "Terry Gordy wrestles like a brawler, tries to jam the Oriental spike into his opponent's throat, and a lot of the action might take place out of the ring.

"But in the Fort Worth match, I think Gordy surprised a lot of people," Apter continued. "He certainly surprised me. Gordy's usually a brawler, but on that night he showed a lot of people that he can truly wrestle, in the classic sense of the word. Even though I think Kerry was also surprised, he was able to adjust quickly. Having that ability is the mark of a champion."

Kerry won that first title defense when Gordy attempted a flying bodypress off the top rope. He landed on Kerry, who quickly rolled Gordy over for the pin.

In the five days that followed, Kerry would wrestle Ric Flair four times—two of those would be title matches.

"When Flair and I were negotiating contracts for the May 6 Texas Stadium card," Von Erich points out, "provisions were made for rematches. One of those rematches was scheduled for May 12 in San Antonio, with the stipulation that it would take place only if Flair had lost the title. Then I added a title rematch of my own for May 9 in Corpus Christi, a match that would take place no matter who won on May 6.

"And when it became known that there were two dates open in Texas," Kerry continued, "Flair snapped those up. Although the NWA wouldn't allow the title to be placed on the line against the same man so many times, both of us were anxious to take those matches. From my standpoint, I wanted to show the world that my win over him was not a fluke. And I suppose his strategy was to wrestle me as many times as possible so that he could wear me down for our next title match. And I'll tell you something—four matches in five days against Flair was agonizing. Absolutely agonizing."

The Florida Circuit

When the NWA World title changes hands, the new champion must assume the schedule of title defenses already signed by the former champion. During his seven days in Florida, Kerry Von Erich had to defend the title eight times!

"Looking at the schedule objectively," Kerry said, "the week of matches in Florida was certainly harder for me than it would have been for Flair. A man like Mike Rotondo is a familiar quantity to Flair; he's wrestled him several times already, and has a set de-

GREATEST MATCH

March 31, 1984 vs. Kendo Nagasaki. Billy Jack defeated Ninja warrior Kendo Nagasaki in a Lakeland, Florida, steel cage match to win the Florida State heavyweight championship. Billy's second regional singles title victory (he has also held the Pacific Northwest championship) established him as a major contender for Ric Flair's NWA World title.

MOST HATED OPPONENT

Superstar Billy Graham. Billy Jack is currently feuding with Superstar Graham, another practitioner of the full-nelson. Graham's adviser, Sir Oliver Humperdink, claims that Graham is more accomplished in his application of the hold, a statement that Billy intends to refute in the ring.

FAVORITE MANEUVER

The full-nelson. Most of Billy Jack's matches end in the same manner—with Billy applying the full-nelson to his opponent. For most, the full-nelson is not a submission hold, but because of Billy's tremendous upper-body strength, especially in the arms and shoulders, the nelson becomes a lethal finishing hold.

TOUGHEST OPPONENT

Cowboy Ron Bass. Since his loss of the Southern heavyweight title to Mike Rotondo, Ron Bass has been campaigning for Billy Jack's Florida belt. Billy has said that his matches with Bass have been the toughest of his career. "You can't take anything away from Bass," Billy said. "He can give it out and take it, too."

TULLY BLANCHARD'S LONELY QUEST FOR MID-ATLANTIC SUPREMACY

PRO WRESTLERS KNOW that standing in the center of a ring is the loneliest feeling in the world. There's no one to help him and everyone is watching each move. Any failure becomes common knowledge almost instantly. All a wrestler can depend upon is himself. A man can't get any more alone than that.

Outside the ring, wrestlers try and get what help they can. Some find managers, others form close friendships with other grapplers. A few find friends outside the profession they can trust. It's the exception who tries to go it alone. Those wrestlers who are loners, as a rule, don't last very long. The pressure of doing it all by himself is usually too much for any man.

Veteran wrestlers know this and don't try to go it alone. If circumstance finds them without a confidant, they'll go out of their way to find someone. It's not uncommon for a wrestler to leave the sport until he can find someone to trust. The sport is too dangerous for a man to risk not having someone to advise him or at least lend a sympathetic ear.

That's why so many people are stunned by Tully Blanchard's quest

Tully Blanchard wants to dominate Mid-Atlantic wrestling. By doing it the hardest way possible, there's every chance he can destroy himself. Blanchard doesn't feel that anyone can be trusted to advise him or even be his friend. If he's going to make it to the top, he's going to make it on his own for supremacy in the Mid-Atlantic states. He's trying to make it totally on his own. What makes it even stranger is that Blanchard is facing some of the toughest competition any man would dare to challenge. Blanchard must battle men like Carlos Colon, Junkyard Dog, and Rick Steamboat. As if that wasn't enough, he also intends to challenge Ric Flair for the NWA World championship. He dares to do all this without a friend in his corner. To accomplish his goals, most veteran observers agree that would make Blanchard a miracle worker. They believe he's actually trapped himself into an insane exhibition of wrestling suicide.

It wasn't always like this for Blanchard. When he first ventured to the Mid-Atlantic region, Tully aligned himself with Paul Jones and Gary Hart, two top if ruthless managers. Though his many victories under their tutelage might not have been the most honorable, no one could deny his success. But then Blanchard left both men. Rather than align himself with someone else, as everyone expected he would, Blanchard decided to do it all on his own.

Blanchard doesn't like to talk about why he chose this almost impossible way to wrestle. If he agrees to give interviews at all, Tully usually limits himself to short answers that reveal nothing. In many ways, he has become wrestling's hermit, alone in everything he does.

That much solitude would exhaust any man. That's why he felt the need to explain himself to someone. He called our offices and asked if we'd like an exclusive interview about why he insists on trying to make it alone. We immediately accepted his offer.

When Blanchard arrived, he wore the weary expression of a man on the run. Even after the interview, we aren't sure what he's running from or where he's desperate to go.

"No one would choose to go it alone," he began, "and I didn't start that way. After I split with Jones and Hart, it occurred to me that a manager was wrong for what I wanted. Let's say I didn't want to trust anyone. I know that can be suicidal, and I fought against the feeling. There was nothing I could do about it. There was no one I wanted to trust.

"I know guys who've felt like I did. They consider themselves burnt out and take a vacation for a while. I don't feel burnt out. I've never wanted to wrestle so much in my life. So I'll wrestle without anyone's help. Just because most men can't survive like that doesn't mean it's impossible. It isn't what I hoped to have happen, but I have to play the hand I'm dealt."

When asked if the loneliness becomes worse as time goes on, Blanchard hesitates a moment before replying, "It doesn't get better. There are nights when I feel surrounded. At times like that, I'd give almost anything for someone to help me, someone I could depend upon to be on my side. But the feeling passes.

"I know no wrestler has ever survived being totally alone. The pressures of this life can be crippling if you can't lean on someone else at some time. I've seen it happen to other guys, watched them crumble under the weight of their loneliness. I know that could happen to me. I know most people expect that to happen to me. It may very well happen to me." Blanchard falls silent for a moment and then flashes his customarily arrogant smile "But I doubt it very much," he adds. □

Without anyone to guide him or advise him, Blanchard has to rely on his own aggressiveness. Tully dominates Junkyard Dog (above and below left) before being trapped in JYD's powerful bearhug (below right).

Shocking Change In Attitude! MOSCA WINS SOUTHERN TITLE FROM ROTONDO

BY STU SAKS

TAMPA, FL—Angelo Mosca shocked and stunned the wrestling world by using rulebreaking tactics to capture the Southern heavyweight title from Mike Rotondo.

For the match, which took place at a taping of televised Florida wrestling in the Tampa Sportatorium, Mosca had requested and received a 30-minute time limit. Everyone on hand—particularly Rotondo—anticipated a scientific encounter.

In fact, the match, commencing with a handshake, was a scientific encounter, until Mosca tossed Rotondo out of the ring. Mosca opened the ropes in order to allow Rotondo back into the ring, but when Rotondo climbed onto the ring apron, Mosca kicked him low several times, dragged him into the ring, and, after a brutal attack, pinned him for the title.

"Why not?" Mosca asked rhetorically. "After all, who deserves to hold the title more than me? They've always called me 'mean and nasty.' Well, that's exactly what I am: mean and nasty. I mean to hold on to the Southern title, and I'm going to be nasty as hell to anyone who tries to take it away from me!"

Angelo Mosca has his arms raised in the air by referee Bill Alfonso after winning the Southern title from Mike Rotondo.

Zbyszko Reported To Be Negotiating With Heenan

BY JOSEPH BUA

MINNEAPOLIS—Larry Zbyszko, the man who calls himself "The New Living Legend," is said to be negotiating with Bobby "The Brain" Heenan. Should negotiations prove successful, Heenan will become Zbyszko's first manager.

ZBYSZKO

HEENAN

"I feel that Larry Zbyszko's career would benefit greatly from the managerial genius of Bobby Heenan," said former AWA World champion Nick Bockwinkel. "Zbyszko has a tremendous future ahead of him, but he simply needs the proper guidance, the correct direction in which to channel his considerable energies. Heenan could provide that direction."

Currently rated sixth in the AWA, Zbyszko has repeatedly voiced his desire for a match against AWA World champion Rick Martel.

Wrestling II Slighted Again For Title Shot

BY CRAIG PETERS

SHREVEPORT, LA—Once again, Mr. Wrestling II has been passed over for a North American title match, this time in favor of his latest protege, Mr. Wrestling III.

When North American champion Magnum T.A. signed for a title match with Mr. Wrestling III, Mr. Wrestling II was furious. "How many times am I going to have to put up with this crap?" Wrestling II said. "This is precisely the same thing that happened to me when that thankless fool Magnum got his title shot. Now they're doing the same thing again. I deserve that match a hell of a lot more than [Wrestling III] does.

"If you ask me, there's a conspiracy in the Mid-South against my receiving a title shot. Are all these fools afraid that I might win the match? Are they afraid of my doing something reckless with the title once I get it? That's absurd! I'm not reckless, I only want what's rightfully mine, and that title shot is what's rightfully mine!"

Backlund To Get Title Shot With Hogan?

BY BILL APTER

NEW YORK—Promoters and members of the WWF Championship Committee have conceded that there is "a distinct possibility" of a Hulk Hogan-Bob Backlund WWF title match sometime in the near future.

"When I came to the WWF a few months ago," Hogan said, "I signed an open-ended contract to face anybody, anytime, any place. I welcome a match against Bob Backlund. I think that type of match would provide the greatest thrill and action in professional wrestling history. Mind you, it would be kind of awkward facing an old tag team partner, but if it has to be, then I guess it has to be."

MONTREAL, QUEBEC

King Tonga, former World Wrestling Council Puerto Rican champion, has come here in search of Dino Bravo's Canadian International title. Tonga, an experienced grappler who blends his mastery of karate with his conventional ring tactics, expects to unseat Bravo in their first encounter.

TOKYO, JAPAN

Jumbo Tsuruta will get his rematch against AWA World champion Rick Martel as soon as Martel embarks on a tour of Japan. Tsuruta hopes to become a two-time AWA World champion at Martel's expense, and says that if he is successful, he will defend the belt in the United States. He hopes the fans will accept him as AWA champion this time. When he defended his title here, AWA fans cheered everyone who opposed him, including Nick Bockwinkel!

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

James J. Dillon has been extremely busy trying to sign wrestlers to compete here. Ron Bass and Black Bart have both told Dillon that they are considering signing with him once again, but they point out that they are currently renegotiating their contracts with Sir Oliver Humperdink in Florida. J.J. did tell us, however, that he will have a major announcement to make within the next few weeks.

LOOKING AT...

Matt Brock:

Ken Timbs tries to console an obviously upset Eric Embry (above). When Embry can concentrate on his wrestling, The Fabulous Blonds' teamwork is devastatingly effective (opposite page) and they are a formidable tag team.

I CAN'T REMEMBER how long it's been since I've been struck with such mixed reactions to any tag team. Usually my opinion comes straight out: The Road Warriors are devastatingly tough, for example, or The Fabulous Ones, Steve Keirn and Stan Lane—dynamic and skilled all the way.

But The Fabulous Blonds, as I said, elicit mixed emotions from me. It's probably because of the fact that they could truly be one of the most successful teams in the sport, if only they could deal with their internal problems. Most of those problems stem from the attitude of Eric Embry.

The Kentucky native showed a lot of talent and determination in his rookie year, and I recall some of those matches in 1982 against opponents like Buzz Sawyer and The Spoiler in which he demonstrated a lot of promise.

But now it seems that it's all that Ken Timbs can do to keep the team together. Embry has developed an attitude where he expects everything to come to him easy. Maybe it's because his rookie year did come easy to him, or maybe he just gets completely frustrated at the thought of losing.

THE FABULOUS BLONDS

Whatever the reasons, Embry acts like a spoiled child, and that's the main factor working against the team. Sitting on the floor outside the ring literally crying about what the other team did to him is downright embarrassing. It's no wonder the ringside fans hold out baby bottles when Embry comes to the ring.

Seeing such reactions from Embry in turn frustrates me, because I know that the kid has plenty of talent, and I know that Timbs has talent to burn as well. Indeed, Timbs may be one of the most underrated tag team wrestlers in the sport today, if only for the fact that he's been able to hold The Fabulous Blonds together by withstanding the crap that Embry has been dishing out.

"Eric's a good tag team partner," Timbs recently told me. "He's the kind of a guy who maybe has a little trouble getting down to business, but once he does get down to business, he's as dangerous in that ring as anyone else in the sport."

But who wants a partner who might be spending valuable time early in the match complaining about what the other team is doing? Personally, if I were Timbs, I'd want a partner who could get right down to it as soon as the bell rings.

Hey, I give Timbs a hell of a lot of credit. He's trying to turn Embry back into the wrestler he could have been, back into the kind of wrestler that was hinted at during his rookie days. And for that I give Timbs an "A" for effort. He probably sees in Embry what I see in Embry: a kid with enormous skills who's simply slipped off the track a bit and needs a little guidance and help to get his career in order.

See, most of the talent in this team remains unrealized. They already exhibit a high caliber of teamwork, and they both have an impressive repertoire of moves and maneuvers. If those natural talents could be supplemented by the proper ring attitude, The Fabulous Blonds could be unbeatable.

But there's Embry again: sitting on the floor, bawling his eyes out. You can almost picture the guy wearing a diaper and booties instead of wrestling trunks and boots. Damn! I wish he could get his act together.

So, I'm sure, does Timbs. □

ON ASSIGNMENT

a 25-word essay explaining why they wanted to go out with Morton and Gibson, and include a photo of themselves with their entry. Even though it will be late, I'm going to write my essay. There's one other rule I'm going to break; I'm going to write just a little bit more than 25 words.

Why I Want to go Out With The Rock 'n' Roll Express

I thought this would be an easy essay to write, because I can't imagine why anyone wouldn't want to go out on a date with Rick Morton and Robert Gibson. When I sat down to write it, however, I realized that there are so many reasons to want to go out with these two men that it would be difficult to know where to start. So, I've decided to very simply list my reasons in order of importance with an explanation following each:

1 They're a very successful tag team: Morton and Gibson began teaming in the Mid-Southern area, but they got started just a bit too late. They competed in the shadow of Steve Keirn and Stan Lane, "The Fabulous Ones," during their tenure in that part of the country. I think that it's a tribute to their talent that they got as much attention as they did. They work very well together, which is a credit to their intense physical and mental training regimen. When The Rock 'n' Roll Express moved on to the Mid-South area, they finally received the credit they were due. They quickly attained a huge fan following and then won the Mid-South tag team title from The Midnight Express. I find success a very attractive attribute in a man. It shows that he possesses the degree of perseverance, the discipline, and the talent, to make anything work.

Gibson and Stan Lane lock up for a test of strength. Both members of The Rock 'n' Roll Express possess qualities that Liz Hunter finds attractive in a man.

2 They have star quality: Every time Morton and Gibson enter an arena, and the second they walk out from the dressing room area the fans go crazy. They both possess that magnetism that sets a crowd on fire. Both Rick and Bobby have a talent for performing the simplest ring maneuvers with a special flair. They're exciting in the ring, and I think they'd be exciting outside the ring as well.

3 They're good looking: Now, I don't want to be considered a swooning teenager, but looks are important. Rick and Bobby remind me of David Lee Roth and Eddie Van Halen. I like the way they dress, inside and outside the ring. They have a sense of style that I admire in men.

4 They're professional wresters: Professional wrestling is the most exciting profession in the world. Many say that the potential for danger is too great for a sensible person to want to get involved with a wrestler. But I think the sensation of the high times would more than make up for the lows. I would love to share my life with a professional wrestler, and in turn, have him share his life with me.

There's my entry. I know it's too late and too long, but I wonder what kind of a chance I would have had. Oh, one other thing, I broke one more rule. I didn't enclose a photo.

Congratulations to the winners, and I hope you enjoyed your dream date with The Rock 'n' Roll Express. I'd love to hear from you. □ fense for Rotondo. But I had to start from scratch.

"When I wasn't traveling," Von Erich continued, "I had to spend my days working out in the gym or watching tapes of matches involving Rotondo, Ron Bass, Superstar Graham, and Black Bart, the men I'd have to defend my title against. It was a hectic schedule, and I hardly had any time to myself. Then again, that's the life of the NWA champion!"

Von Erich did make a new friend in Florida—Billy Jack.

"Billy is a terrific guy," Von Erich said. "I traveled with him from town to town, and he showed me some of the best places to work out. Hey—he should know about the best gyms in Florida, right? All you've got to do is look at this guy's body and you're instantly impressed. He's amazing. And I was able to watch him defend his Florida heavyweight title a few times. He's got quite a future ahead of him. I'm happy to call him my friend."

Japan: The Final Days

Jumbo Tsuruta, executing the Lou Thesz-style backdrop, would sprain Von Erich's right hand in the third fall of their match.

"The flight to Japan gave me my first opportunity to rest," Von Erich said, "but then again I had jet lag to contend with! I remember sitting on the plane thinking about the two weeks I had just lived through, and trying to anticipate what the future would hold.

"I knew my match on May 24 would be a rough one," Von Erich continued. "Again, it was against Flair. It's funny, when I first signed for that match, it was before I had won the title. At the time, I assumed I would be challenging for the title. And here I was defending it! I think that's when it all sunk in: I was the champion of the world!"

There were two significant factors of which both wrestlers were keenly aware coming into this match: One, this would be Flair's last chance at the title (the NWA had already stated that Ric would lose his number-one ranking if he lost), and, two, Von Erich would be wrestling with a handicap.

Kerry's right hand—the hand he uses to apply his clawhold—was injured two days earlier in Tokyo during a match with former AWA champion Jumbo Tsuruta. In the third and deciding fall of the best two-out-of-three falls match, Tsuruta continually stomped on Von Erich's right hand, spraining it severely. Although Kerry could not cancel his two-out-of-three falls match against Flair in Yokosuka City.

"I won the first fall at the 15:21 mark using the claw," Kerry said, "but it took a lot out of me. I think applying the claw aggravated some of the injuries I suffered in the Tsuruta match. I had gotten a leg up on Flair by winning the first fall, but I think that some of my worries about my right hand cost me the edge I initially had."

Flair took the second fall in 3:24 with the figure-four leglock, and recaptured the NWA World title at the 7:19 mark of the third fall when Von Erich rolled him up for a pin, and Flair masterfully shifted his weight to turn the rollover into a double-rollover.

Some Afterthoughts

"Those were the three most hectic, aggravating, painful, joyous, incredible weeks of my life," Von Erich said. "Now I fully understand what being the NWA champion means, and what kind of a schedule has to be maintained. I think that, God willing, if I am able to win the World title once again, I know what to expect and can keep the title for much longer.

"And anyone who criticizes Ric Flair in any manner whatsoever had better think twice about what he says," Von Erich added. "Flair's schedule is incredible, and I respect the man tremendously. I always have, but that respect is even more now that I've had a taste of what being the World champion is all about.

"And I will be World champion once again," Von Erich said. "That's a promise I've already made to myself, my family, my fans, and to David." □

BE CAUTIOUS, TITO

I have spent weeks watching WWF wrestling, and have come to the conclusion that Tito Santana will lose his Intercontinental heavyweight title soon. Ironically, he will lose it because of his favorite finishing move, the flying forearm smash. Tito always seems to use that maneuver to beat his opponent. Granted, the smash is powerful and Tito uses it very effectively, but if he should miss, the results could be devastating. An experienced opponent should be able to avoid the maneuver and go on to pin Tito and take the title. I suggest that Tito try and use the form of the Indian deathlock that he used in Georgia a year ago. The smash is risky; I would like to see Tito avoid unnecessary risks.

A MAN OF HIS WORD?

An open letter to Jim Garvin:

Well, Gorgeous Jimmy, if you're a man of your word, you should be getting ready to quit wrestling. Remember a few months ago when you said that if any of the Von Erichs won the NWA World title you would quit? Well, Kerry won the title from Ric Flair in Texas Stadium on May 6, and you should be looking for a new job. Goodbye, Gorgeous Jimmy, we won't miss you.

GOOD AWA COVERAGE

I want to thank you for the coverage you have been providing the AWA area. I live just outside of Chicago, and have recently started to attend the matches at the Rosemont Horizon and the University of Illinois Chicago Pavillion.

In the August 1984 issue of PWI, there was an article on Greg Gagne in "King's Court." I want to compliment Editor-in-Chief Peter King for a fine article on a great wrestler. When I first saw Greg Gagne in person, I realized that he is one of the greatest scientific wrestlers today. He and Jim Brunzell would give The Road Warriors a tough match!

I also want to thank you for the coverage of the Blackjack Lanza-Jumbo Tsuruta match. There have been several photos from this match in PWI and its sister publications.

Again, thank you for the AWA coverage. I hope to keep seeing more on this excellent wrestling area in your fine magazine in the future.

Billy Jack and Graham over the question of which man is stronger. Following Billy Jack's victory in the match, Graham's manager, Sir Oliver Humperdink, signaled to the dressing room area, and One Man Gang ran over and knocked Billy Jack to the floor. While he did that, Graham took the table, broke it apart, and used the pieces to smash and break Billy Jack's left hand. Billy was left writhing on the floor in agony, and had to be assisted back to his dressing room by Chief Joe Lightfoot and Dennis Brown.

Sonny King is now wrestling in the Mid-South area, claiming he has gone there to aid Junkyard Dog in his wars against Nikolai Volkoff and Krusher Khrushchev. Rip Oliver has regained the Pacific Northwest heavyweight belt from Playboy Buddy Rose, who held that title for only one week. Kevin Von Erich is feuding with Killer Khan throughout the World Class wrestling area.

A recent installment of televised Mid-Atlantic wrestling included a half-hour special on NWA World heavyweight champions, past and present. Three-time NWA champion Ric Flair appeared on the special with his friend Wahoo McDaniel by his side. Flair was speaking about the history, pride, and prestige of the NWA title that stretches back 80 years when Tully Blanchard appeared on the scene and started berating him, bragging about how much of a better dresser he was than Flair, and how much of a better wrestler he is. Tully then attacked Flair, ripping off his jacket and smashing him several times in the head—while McDaniel simply stood there. "I didn't see any reason to help Ric," Wahoo explained. "Listen, I trained Flair years ago, I helped him get to where he is today, and I've done the same thing for Rick Steamboat. But do these guys ever think of me for title shots? No way. Well, I'm through saving everyone else's neck. I'm out for number one, and that means me, and that means there better be some title shots headed my way . . . or else."

The World Class six-man tag team title has been held up. Back on May 6 in the spectacular "Parade of Champions" card in Fritz Von Erich applies simultaneous clawholds on Michael Hayes and Buddy Roberts. Swinging his boot, Terry Gordy rushes into the ring to rescue his Freebird partners.

Texas Stadium, it had been assumed that the team of Kevin, Mike, and Fritz Von Erich defeated Michael Hayes, Terry Gordy, and Buddy Roberts for the title. Indeed, Kevin pinned Roberts in that match. But repeated viewing of tapes of the match have determined that they were not the legal men in the ring at the time. It appears that former NWA World champion Kerry Von Erich will be taking his father's place on the team, so we can expect a title match between Kerry, Kevin, and Mike Von Erich and The Fabulous Freebirds in the near future.

Mike Von Erich suffered a separated right shoulder in a recent match against World Class American heavyweight champion Gino Hernandez. He was not expected to be out of action for more than three weeks ... Tom Pritchard and Brett Sawyer defeated the team of Rip Oliver and The Assassin to capture the Pacific Northwest tag team title ... Blackjack Mulligan is now carrying a big stick into the ring (though he has never been known to speak softly!).

The Midnight Express regained the Mid-South tag team belts from The Rock 'n' Roll Express when manager Jim Cornette ran into the ring and shoved a rag full of ether in the face of Robert Gibson, who had the Express' Bobby Eaton caught in a sleeperhold. This match, by the way, was a special challenge match: the Rock 'n' Roll's tag belts against Cornette's $50,000.

Vince McMahon Sr., the father of WWF wrestling announcer and promoter Vince McMahon Jr. and founder of the WWF in 1963, died May 29 in North Miami, Florida, from cancer at age 69. McMahon promoted his first bout in 1935. He was recently inducted into the Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame.

That's all for now. See you at ringside! □

tell you about Thief River Falls. It's a good example of just how screwed up this country is, just how much of a lie America is. My little American home town is not so pure. I read about it in a book once. It used to be part of the hunting grounds for the Chippewa Indian tribe. By the way, how do you justify what your so-called peace-loving Americans did to the Indians, who are the only real Americans. Anyway, the Chippewa certainly one of the most criminal countries the world has ever seen. I asked him how he could defend a country that builds walls not to keep foreigners out, but its own people in. I asked him about the enslavement of eastern Europe by the Soviets, and the lack of freedoms allowed to its people. I also mentioned the fact that those who disagree with the Russian government are either arrested or placed in mental institutions. Khrushchev just laughed at my speech.

"You are merely repeating capitalistic propaganda," he said. "Russia is a peace-loving nation. All of its citizens love the country. Certainly some people are placed in mental institutions. And why not. Anyone who talks against mother Russia must surely be a lunatic."

I realized I wasn't getting through to this misguided young man. Somehow, he has taken all the good, clean values of America and twisted them. It's no wonder fans despise him so much. Unfortunately, he doesn't seem to care. He is as blind to the truth as he is deaf to the boos.

As I listened to Khrushchev talk, I hoped that much of what he was saying was just meant to shock me. He's still very young, and maybe this is his way of rebelling against the establishment. Some kids today dye their hair purple and wear safety pins through their cheeks. Maybe, Khrushchev's love for Russia is the same thing.

If that's the case, then this young man can be saved. It's just a matter of time until he grows up and realizes the truth, that he is a citizen of the greatest country in the world. But if he really has become a convert to the Russian way of life, then I'm afraid he'll never change. And America will have lost another of its most precious natural resources—one of its young man. □ called it 'Secret Earth River.' Somehow, stupid early-American settlers thought the Indians called it 'Stealing Earth River.' Through the years, even more stupid Americans, who never listen anyway, ended up calling it 'Thief River.' So my little pure American home town is just like the rest of America—based on stupidity and misunderstanding."

Khrushchev slips his right hand underneath Terry Taylor's left arm and around his throat. Forget the American work ethic; Khrushchev would rather take the easy route to success.

I didn't want to get into a debate with Khrushchev, because I believe sports and politics should remain separate. But still, I found myself lecturing him about Russia,

VERY RARE BACK ISSUES
THE ORIGINAL WRESTLING REVUE
ONLY $5 EACH

All the back issues of the ORIGINAL WRESTLING REVUE listed for sale in this advertisement were edited and published by Stanley Weston, who founded Wrestling Revue in 1959 and sold his interests in the magazine in 1964. These extremely rare back issues have not been available to the public for more than 15 years, although many have been sold by private collectors for as much as 75 dollars per copy. This is a rare opportunity for those of you who collect and treasure truly fine wrestling magazines of great historic importance, at a price you can afford. Most of these issues contain magnificent, full color pin up portraits of the world's greatest wrestlers, some of whom are still active. The supply of these collector's treasures is very limited, so order today and avoid disappointment.

ALL SALES FINAL. NO EXCHANGES OR REFUNDS WILL BE MADE.

to try to squeeze into the area.

But the 60s and the 70s are behind us now. This is the video decade. Cable television has broadened the scope of the sport of wrestling, lifting it from a local to national level. For the last few years, New York area fans have watched World Championship Wrestling from Georgia and have yearned for the day when the touring superstars would find their way to the Northeast. More recently, New York area fans have had the opportunity to watch the wrestlers of the Mid-Atlantic on WXTV channel 41 on Saturday afternoons at 1 p.m. Even though the mat action is broadcast in Spanish, the interviews with the English-speaking wrestlers (which are translated into Spanish) had made one point absolutely clear since the show first aired in February: The NWA was working its way up to the New York area.

So there I sat with Matt Brock, tissues in my pocket in case of nose bleeds. "Sitting up here gives you a different perspective," the grizzled reporter told me. "Not only do you get a complete, unobstructed view of the action, but you get something up here that the reporters at the press table could never hope to get."

"Just sit here and listen to the fans," Brock continued. "Eavesdrop a little; it's okay. Don't sit with the other reporters and come back with a story describing how the fans reacted to the matches. Sit with the fans and find out firsthand."

And that's exactly what I did. Sure, I enjoyed the card. After all, I've seen these wrestlers in person a number of times. The vast majority of the fans had only seen them on TV, if at all. Their reactions were crucial to the future success of the NWA in this part of the country.

It didn't take me long to realize that a large portion of the fans at the Meadowlands had never even seen these wrestlers on TV. Since there was virtually no newspaper advertising for the card, many of these fans had learned about it through the preview articles that appeared in the July issues of our sister publications Inside Wrestling and The Wrestler, and the only thing they knew about the wrestlers was what they have been reading over the years in the magazines.

I knew that the people who had seen these wrestlers before would have a good time. It was the people who were new to NWA wrestling whom I was particularly interested in. Two such people, both about 17 years old, were sitting behind us. It was fascinating to gauge their reactions. Having never seen the wrestlers in action or heard them interviewed on TV, they didn't have that same emotional interest as they normally would have at the start of the individual matches. As each match progressed, however, they became more and more involved. Toward the end of each match, they cheered and booed as if they were watching the familiar Madison Square Garden action.

The main event at the Meadowlands that night, between U.S. champion Rick Steamboat and NWA World champion Ric Flair, was 31 minutes of intense action. After Flair won the incredible battle, I introduced myself to the two fans and asked them what they thought of it. They both agreed that it was the greatest match they had ever seen. They also told me they'd be back for the next card, on August 21.

Before we left our seats, Matt pointed to media members filing to the dressing room together. "They're not going to get their story in there," he said. "You got the story of the evening from the two guys sitting behind us."

NWA wrestling was a New York hit!

OFF THE TOP ROPE

he did, it would be the equivalent of a man with a slingshot trying to best a nuclear bomb.

Dear Dan,

To a man whose opinion I respect, I ask what do you think of Tito Santana? So far, I see nothing special.

I see the same mediocrity over and over again. His defeat of Magnificent Muraco for the WWF Intercontinental title was a fluke. Yet he's still on top. What do you think about that?

LLOYD LEE
Norwalk, CN

Dear Dan,

I think it's time everyone admitted that Nick Bockwinkel is the greatest wrestler in the world today.

Hulk Hogan may be on top in the WWF, but that wimp was humiliated on several occasions by Nick. Hogan finally had to run off to other parts of the world trying to find a place where he could win. He settled in the WWF along with previous Bockwinkel victims—Bob Backlund, Tito Santana, and, yes, even Andre the Giant.

As far as the NWA goes, you won't find any wrestlers with the confidence or stupidity to go north

Anyone who looks at Tito Santana objectively will realize that he is hardly more than mediocre. The fact that he holds a major title should serve as evidence that he has been bribing referees and officials. I commend your intelligence, Lloyd Lee.

Dear Lloyd,

You don't see anything special in Santana because you're looking at his matches. Tito's gift is his ability to curry favor with referees, fans, and other creatures of limited intelligence. Against real opponents, with no outside interference, Tito would be a minor preliminary wrestler who'd have to double as a popcorn seller to make a living. He'll remain on top as long as the world doesn't conform to the Pollyanna fairness desired by my first correspondent.

and take on the Great One. Can you imagine what Bockwinkel would do to Tommy Rich? It would make medical history!

Let's finally give credit where credit is due. Nick Bockwinkel is simply the best there is.

CRAIG COOK
Omaha, NE

Dear Craig,

While I've always contended it's impossible to choose one best wrestler, and though Bockwinkel is no longer AWA champion, he has certainly earned the right to be considered one of the best. As for those you've mentioned as his victims, their careers will be simply asterisks when the history of wrestling is written.

Dear Shocket,

This is in regard to your opinion about such wrestlers as Dusty Rhodes, Jimmy Valiant, and Tommy Rich wearing masks. This has never been proven to be true.

Wrestling fans amaze me. How could they support a man like Tommy Rich when he puts on a mask and tries to make fools of them?

Tommy Rich does set a good example for the fans. Shocket, you don't have much dignity for talking bad about people. As far as calling Tommy Rich a corrupt wormslime, Shocket, you don't know the meaning of fair play and decency.

BARBARA MARTIN
Atlanta

Dear Martin,

I may not know the meaning of fair play, but I have a vague idea about what it means to sign a contract and then violate it. And as for it never being proven that these craven liars—Rhodes, Valiant and Rich—never wore a mask, let's not be simpleminded. Everybody knew and cheered that these men turned their backs on their written word. In Rhodes' case especially, do you really want to live in a world where two people have that physique? ☐

Are You Too Short?

"You can add 2-4 inches in 10 weeks or less!"
Says William A. Reldnas

"I have positive proof you can increase your height. Here are the indisputable facts."

"For many years, scientists believed height increase was not possible after the end of childhood. Recent factual data proves they were wrong. If athletes can increase the length of their limbs AFTER the age of puberty, you can certainly increase the length of your legs and complete torso and, you can do it scientifically, without artificial contraptions or possible injury by using The Height Increase Method."

While it may not yet be acceptable scientific dogma, the research sources are well known and respected scientific journals. And what's more important, if you're not 100% satisfied that The Height Increase Method is living up to all of Reldnas's claims, simply send it back for an immediate refund, no questions asked. miracles happen in their daily lives!

You'll see how Vern, a man who likes to give a lot of expensive parties, was always short of cash until he discovered the amazing WITCH'S MONEY JAR—now all he has to do is dip in, for it brings him an endless flow of cash! Evelyn, a waitress, was always lending money to friends, and was always broke. Finally, she placed her last dollar on the table, and worked the MONEY MAGNET SPELL over it. All at once, dozens of people who had borrowed money from her, rushed to pay her back!

Hank was perpetually broke. One night he got together with some friends, and they decided to cast the MONEY SPELL. The very next day, Hank received in the mail a check for some $250 worth of insurance. (He had never heard of the company that sent the check, he was not insured with them, and had never even made a claim—but he accepted the money.) Another member of the group that used the spell, a 40-year-old secretary, received an automobile as a gift! All the other members of the group received amazing windfalls of money, as well! You'll see how Dexter, a retiree, lives RENT FREE and receives $200 a week at the age of 78, with a secret you'll find in this Witch Book! You'll see how Claudine, a secretary, was able to wear the finest, most expensive furs—FREE—and spend weekends at an expensive ski lodge in the mountains, where she met a wonderful man! How Ruth L., a widow—with nothing but a small pension, and a little savings—received her dream house, by using a simple 5-minute ritual on page 38 of this book!

Using the same Witchcraft secrets, YOU can achieve peace of mind and freedom from money worries for the rest of your life!

YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF AS WITCHES DO!

Feeling sick today? Plagued by a lot of troublesome illnesses? Perhaps some relative is sick and constantly demanding your attention? Or perhaps it is even a pet that needs help! With the MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT, you can cure anything, say authors Gavin and Yvonne Frost: "In our experience... we have not found a single incurable disease!"

• ANDY DISSOLVES A GALLSTONE!—Andy M. developed gallstones. When his illness became too troublesome to ignore, he went to a doctor. Urine tests revealed that he was chronically alkaline. His body was badly out of balance. Using this Witchcraft method to restore balance to the mind and body—in a short while, X-rays showed that he had no more gallstones! Andy never again suffered the excruciating pain of passing stones!

In the same way, say Gavin and Yvonne Frost, almost all illness can be prevented. You are actually employing an ancient Witchcraft method to remove diseased tissue! Even if you do not have any belief in the results, the power will work for you!

One woman, who had been in a wheelchair for 26 years, due to polio and arthritis, used the Witchcraft healing method, and reported that she had no pain and could walk and garden again! A man reported that his son's deep 3rd degree burns miraculously healed overnight!

• SO SIMPLE A CHILD USES IT!—A 4-year-old girl asked if she could try to heal a man who was limping—due to a leg injury—with this simple Witchcraft healing method. In a matter of moments, she started her chant, laying her hands on the weak ankle. The man was miraculously cured! To skeptics, this should be convincing PROOF that anyone can use it!

AMAZING POWER CAN BE YOURS!

Whether you want infinite wealth, or just a comfortable new home, financial security, fine possessions, love, companionship, new health and vigor, power to control others, secret knowledge, protection from evil, or anything else, the magic power of Witchcraft can bring it to you quickly, easily and automatically! It's the easiest thing in the world!

• HOW TO SEE INTO THE FUTURE!—Would you like to be able to see the future? You CAN with the magic Black Mirror you'll see how to make on page 23. All you need is some ink and a bowl of water. Then use the chant on this page, and you will be able to see many things. One man uses it to read tomorrow's newspaper. YOU can use it to check the stock market or that important horse race!

• MAKE TIME RUN BACKWARD OR FORWARD!—A

RATINGS ANALYSIS

Every month, this column will tell fans how we go about rating more than 150 wrestlers in 14 different categories. It is a behind-the-scenes look at the most important—and respected—ratings system in the sport. This column is vital reading for all wrestling fans.

A new standard: During a recent meeting of the editorial board of this magazine, it was decided that the WWF Intercontinental champion would be rated in the number one position, right under the WWF champion, in the same fashion that the United States champion is rated directly under the NWA World champion.

Tito Santana

This moves Tito Santana up from his number two position in the WWF, which he had held since defeating Magnificent Muraco for the title in March, to the number one slot under Hulk Hogan, denoting that he is the second-best in the Northeast.

Of course, because Santana must fulfill his commitments as Intercontinental titleholder, the number one ranking does not necessarily appoint him the number one contender for Hogan's title. Greg Valentine, who is currently ranked number two, is considered the top contender for Hogan's belt this month.

The last time the Intercontinental champion was afforded an opportunity to wrestle for the more prestigious WWF belt was in early 1983, when Muraco wrestled then-WWF champion Bob Backlund in a series of bouts.

The WWF's practice of not allowing the Intercontinental champion to challenge for the heavyweight championship is in direct contrast to the NWA's policy. The U.S. champion, currently Rick Steamboat, is considered the top contender for Ric Flair's NWA World championship.

Three places at once: Wahoo McDaniel places in three separate ratings categories this issue. McDaniel's current series of victories in the Mid-Atlantic, Missouri, and Georgia regions places him in our Top 10 ratings, and in the official NWA ratings, both at number 10. He was not ranked in either category last issue. McDaniel is also ranked in the number five position in the Mid-Atlantic region this issue.

Wahoo continues to compete on cards in Georgia, Ohio, Michigan, New Jersey, and West Virginia run by the World Championship Wrestling promoters, but has been wrestling in more tag team than singles matches and is no longer rated among the top singles wrestlers in the Georgia ratings.

Other multiple listings: Obviously, there are going to be a number of wrestlers who will be listed in more than one category each issue. It is, however, a rare occurrence when a wrestler is rated in two separate categories on the right hand page of our ratings, the page that features rankings for the top wrestling regions of the country.

In this issue, however, there are four of those rare occurrences. Nikolai Volkoff, Junkyard Dog, Butch Reed, and Billy Jack all appear in two separate regional ratings categories.

Interestingly, Volkoff, Junkyard Dog, and Reed currently base themselves in the Mid-South region. Volkoff, who ranks at number five in the Mid-South, is ranked at number eight in the Georgia area, where he is currently feuding with King Kong Bundy. JYD, ranked sixth upon his return to the Mid-South, comes in at number 10 in the Mid-Atlantic ratings. Reed, who ranks seventh in the Mid-South, is the number 10 rated wrestler in the World Class region. Billy Jack, the fourth man to hold the double listing distinction, is rated number two as state champion of Florida, and ranks in the Georgia area at number seven after only a few appearances.

Butch Reed

Billy Jack

And finally: There seems to be an increasing number of Spoilers in the sport—not men who stop other wrestler's winning streaks or destroy their title opportunities, but men who call themselves "The Spoiler."

We will continue to call the Georgia-based masked man The Spoiler and, for his counterpart who we will call Mid-Southern Spoiler, sorry, but you just came a little too late.

The address for mail: We always look forward to your comments on our ratings system, and on our "Ratings Analysis." Send them to: "Ratings Analysis" c/o Pro Wrestling Illustrated; Box 48; Rockville Centre, NY 11571. □
